

Whether you are a general educator or a specialist in teaching English language learners,

Colorín Colorado is for YOU!

ColorinColorado.org, the nation's leading ELL website for educators and parents, is your one-stop shop for FREE research-based information on how to help ELLs read and succeed!

For the past 10 years, the American Federation of Teachers and PBS station WETA have collaborated to bring you the best, most comprehensive information, including:

- Strategies and articles
- Classroom videos
- Interviews with researchers, educators, and authors
- Reading tip sheets
- Multicultural book lists
- Information on the Common Core and ELLs
- Much, much more on what works with ELLs

We invite you to join the millions of preK–12 educators of ELLs who have discovered thousands of resources on Colorín Colorado. Start using them now!

And on this 10th anniversary, we are proud to have the National Education Association working with us to support Colorín Colorado!

A Union of Professionals
