

Readings

“Experts Urge Younger Start to Teaching Science”

Deborah Viadero, Education Week, Jan. 20, 2010

<http://www.edweek.org/ew/articles/2010/01/13/18preschool.h29.html>

“Science in the Preschool Classroom: Capitalizing on Children’s Fascination with the Everyday World to Foster Language and Literacy Development”

Kathleen Conezio and Lucia French, Young Children, Sept. 2002

<http://tiny.cc/rsequx>

“Celebrating a Young Learner at Work: Marcus the Scientist”

Anne Clyde and Mark W.F. Condon, Young Children, Sept. 2003

<http://tiny.cc/vlaqux>

“Dinosaur Extinction: Early Childhood Style”

Mary Murray and Lesley Valentine-Anand, Science and Children, Dec. 2008

<http://tiny.cc/s2aqux>

“Seeds in the Window, Soil in the Sensory Table”

Alyse C. Hachey and Deanna L. Butler, Young Children, Nov. 2009

<http://tiny.cc/uwbqux>

“Important Science Words for Preschoolers”

Hannah Wahlig, eHow.com

http://www.ehow.com/print/info_8574596_important-science-words-preschoolers.html

Preschool Classroom Science Area and Exploration Area

ChildCareLounge.com

<http://www.childcarelounge.com/environments/science-area.php>

“For the Birds! Seeing, Being, and Creating the Bird World”

Michele Russo, Susan Gallagher Colurciello and Rebecca Kelly, Young Children, Jan. 2008

<http://tiny.cc/l3cqux>

“Resources for Science in the Early Years”

Young Children, Nov. 2009

<http://tiny.cc/tucqux>