

Handout 1

Creating a Mathematics Environment

Create a learning environment that helps young children learn about math by exploring, interacting, and having meaningful conversations about math.

Make sure that math materials are accessible to children in various areas throughout the classroom.

Seize the Math Moment:

When children are curious and ask questions while exploring - take the time to discuss their questions using math vocabulary, expand their ideas, and challenge them to think deeper.

Number Celebrations

Computer Area

